Vienna, April 6. N. S. The Grand Maſter of the Teutonick Order, who is likewiſe Coadjutor of Mentz, has taken the accuſtomed Oaths to the Emperor, in Quality of Governour both of the Upper and Lower Sileſia. On the Twenty ninth of the laſt Month, Fourteen of the Knights of the Golden Fleece, who have been nominated to that Dignity at Frankfort, were Inſtall'd in the Church of the Auguſtin Friars with extraordinary Solemnity, and receiv'd the Collar of the Order from the Hands of his Imperial Majeſty. The Swiſs-General, Baron d'Erlagh, is very earneſt in his Sollicitations for conſiderable Arrears due to the Swiſs-Regiments in the Imperial Service, which are ſaid to amount to Three hundred thouſand Crowns. The Venetian Ambaſſador, Victor Zani, having made a very ſplendid Entrance the day before, has had his firſt Audience of the Emperor. His Imperial Majeſty has ſent back an Interpreter, who lately arriv'd here from Conſtantinople with a Commiſſion to Monſieur Taalman, who remains there as his Reſident, formally to notify his Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Imperial Crown, and to diſtribute the Preſents that are uſual upon ſuch Occaſions. The Prince Eſterhaſi arrived here from Hungary upon the Second of this Month, and has repreſented to the Emperor, that ſeveral of the Senators, and other Members ſummoned to appear at the General Diet for that Kingdom, to be held at Presburg, come hither daily, but thoſe who paſs'd through Places that are in any manner ſuſpected to have the Plague, perform their Quarrentine upon the Road, where they expect farther Orders: Hereupon the Emperor Yeſterday, commanded the Great Chamberlain to acquaint him, that when they were all arriv'd at Presburg, and the Affairs of the Government in a proper Condition for his Reception, they ſhould give him notice of it: In the mean time there is no day fix'd for his departure, nor are the Perſons appointed who ſhould attend him in his Journey thither. Signior Odelſchalchi, the Pope's Nuncio is gone hence in his way to Poland. The Velt Marſhal, Count Daun, is ſo much indiſpos'd, that it is thought he will not be able to make the approaching Campaign in Italy.

Schafhauſen, April 7. N. S. Monſieur Pudner, the Chancellor of the Abbot of St. Galle, having met with a Monk of Fiſhingen, and ſome other Perſons, in the Village of Moſnang in the County of Tockenburg, aſſembled the Commons, and made them Propoſitions on the part of the Prelate his Maſter; upon which they divided, and part were for accepting them, but others for their rejection, as Captious and Inſufficient; at laſt they came to Blows, and the Chancellor, with his Company, were oblig'd to fly to a Place of Safety, being follow'd by thoſe who had moſt contributed to the inteſtine Diſſentions. It is hop'd at Zurich, that this ſmall Encounter may occaſion the Abbot to defer the execution of his Deſign, and that ſome proper Method may be found out for an Accommodation. The General Diet was opened on the Fourth Inſtant at Baden.

Cologn, April 12. N. S. The Chapter of this Place having ſent the Baron de Godenau, and Monſieur Veyder, to view the Fortifications of the Town of Bonne, which were ſaid to be in want of Reparations, they have executed their Commiſſions, but their Report is not as yet made publick. They write from Meurs, that the Pruſſian Commiſſaries, at the requeſt of the Magiſtrates
